TAKE YOUR BEST SHOT Finishing his swing, Spencer Schlagel, 12, watches the ball land on Sept. 13 at Saddle Rock Golf Course. "The chemistry and bond we have had as a team has been at its best this year," Schlagel said. "I've just been trying to take it all in that this is my last year on this team." Photo by Morgan Underwood

WAIT WHAT?

You're confused.
Where's our normal schedule?
IT'S GONE.
Remember those hated block days?
Now they're 4 days a week.
GUESS WHAT?
There's a new class...
SEMINAR.
WHAT IS IT?
UP TO YOU.

WHO RUNS THIS SCHOOL?

Our student body presidents
Molly Stewart and Devan Turner...
THEY'RE AMAZING.
But who's Mr. and Ms. Legend?
RYDER RINOW AND KENZIE OSTER.
But don't worry...
MR. JACOB IS STILL HERE!

1. ALL SMILES During her cheer performance, Natalie Eddy, 11, smiles as she is lifted into her stunt. On Dec. 18 cheer performed during halftime at the varsity boys basketball game at Ball Arena. 2. DOUBLE SKILLS During the game against Chatfield on Dec. 18, Brea Wilkinson, 10, performs the National Anthem. Wilkinson got the opportunity to sing at Ball Arena and cheer with the varsity cheer team. 3. GET HYPE Cheering during the football game against Brighton on Nov. 3, Ryan Menard, 12, gets loud with Ryder Rinow, 12. "It was a fun game to see because it was our first playoff game," Menard said. Photos by Addie Solomon

4. GOING FAR Sprinting down the field, Ryken Banks, 10, gets a first down during the game against Castle View on Sept. 9. "The team has grown closer over the year, and I think that our talent will take us far, but our chemistry and culture will take us even further," Banks said. Photo by Addie Solomon

1. LET'S GET IT STARTED
Cheering, Stella Solak, 12, celebrates the start of senior year on Aug. 10. As one of the senior class presidents, Solak was introduced during the Back to School Assembly. "The best part about this role is getting to be involved in my senior year," Solak said. "Considering I have grown up with all these people I love making sure our last year together is perfect."

2. THAT WINNING FEELING
After winning one of their games during Ritter Roundball, Ty Houseman, 12, poses with his team on Aug. 28. "It was a super fun opportunity to support a good cause," Houseman said.

3. SHOWING SUPPORT
While waiting to switch positions, Regan Kadel, 12, high fives her teammate, Reese Betschart, 10. "We are all supportive of each other," Kadel said.

4. WE GOT IT
After a turnover, Nate Sandy, 12, and his teammates run off the field. "We all played really well together this season, and had good culture," Sandy said.

5. GET ROWDY
During the Castle View game on Sept. 8, Katie Lockard, 12, gets loud at halftime. "I love going to the games and getting loud to support our teams," Lockard said. Photos by Addie Solomon

HOW'S IT GOING?
WE'RE LIGHTING IT UP.
You know what's crazy?
OUR FOOTBALL TEAM CRUSHED PONDO.
Getting revenge from last year.

WHAT ELSE?
We had three national merit scholarship semifinalists.
Curtis Freedom, Morgan Underwood, Nandha Vivek.

But you know what's the same?
OUR SCHOOL SPIRIT IS UNMATCHED.

ARE YOU READY FOR THIS YEAR?
It'll keep you on your toes and
HAVE YOU ASKING...

WAIT WHAT

1. WHO ARE WE?
WE ARE LEGEND!
SO WHAT?
Our spirit is legendary.
SUMMER IS OVER.
WHERE DID YOU GO?
We traveled all over the world...
LIKE BOLIVIA.

DID YOU FEEL THE STANDS SHAKE?
Yeah... we were singing "Sweet Caroline"
WHAT ABOUT HOCO?
We went all out for animated series.
BECAUSE THIS IS...

WHAT WE DO

1. BALLING FOR A CAUSE After winning their game at Ritterroundball, Cooper Hansen, 12, and Niko Juhola, 11, pose for the camera. Photo by Addie Solomon
2. BIG MOMENT Holding hands, Principle Jacob walks out the 2024 Wish Kid, Dominik, at the opening assembly. The assembly took place on Jan. 25, and students welcomed the newest Titan, Dominik, to kick off the amazing week ahead. Photo by 3. SAY CHEESE Following the Wish Week opening assembly, Kenzie Oster, 12, poses with student government for a group photo. "It is such a special week that all goes to support an amazing cause," Oster said. Photo by

6. GETTING LOUD Celebrating at their first football game of senior year, Tea Anderson, 12, Molly Stewart, 12, Addie Solomon, 12, and Madison Nesti, 12, get loud. "My favorite memory was when we threw the chalk in the air to kick off the game," Nesti said. Photo by Selena Abureesh

1.

WHY WERE YOU UP SO EARLY?

It was mole day.

WHO IS PLAYING THE GUITAR?

Mr. Jake Yergert during passing periods.

WHERE WERE YOU DURING THE FALSE ALARM LOCK DOWN?

I was in Mrs. Hedrick's and couldn't finish my timed write.

DID YOU SEE THE FALL PLAY?

Yeah, the set fell apart.

WAIT... WHY IS THE NEWS HERE?

To learn about EDGE.

IS DECA DOMINATING?

Yes, there were 38 state qualifiers.

BECAUSE THIS IS...

HOW WE DO IT

1. MAKING A MELODY Practicing for the March choir concert, Tessa Waterman, 10, sings their piece. Waterman was a part of the Phillharmonics group with choir. Photo by Rowan Bullock 2. CLAP IT OUT Walking down the hall with the drum line, Levi Dombrower, 11, helps keep up school spirit during the clap out on Oct. 13. Football was featured as the 9News game of the week, so the school put on a clap out through the whole school for them and the teams headed to state.

Photo by Isabella Johnson 3. IT'S AN HONOR During the honor society induction ceremony, president and vice president of National Honor Society, Grace Taylor, 12, and Isaac Schmitz, 11, introduce each honor society. "I'm so fortunate to have this position because it is so honorable. Isaac and I had fun at the induction ceremony. We had a script, but were able to improvise a little," Taylor said. Photo by Kendelle Hansen

4. GOING SOLO Joren Nicholas, 11, plays music to accompany the coffeehouse choir concert on March 6. There was another guitarist and a drummer who also accompanied the choir. Photo by Rowan Bullock 5. PUT ON A SHOW Performing, Norah Segrist, 12, sings her solo during the March 6 coffeehouse choir concert. Segrist was a part of three choirs: Phillharmonix, Voces Novae, and Bella Voce. Photo by Rowan Bullock 6. HANG ON TIGHT During the fall play, The Play that Goes Wrong, Drew Miller, 11, hangs on to a prop on stage as he is carried across. Theater puts on a fall play and spring musical each school year. Photo by Bradley Wolfe

1. WHO BEAT VALOR?

US AND ONLY US.

We were the first Douglas County school to beat them in football.

WHAT ABOUT SOCCER?

They made it to the Elite 8 for the first time.

WHAT ELSE?

We made it to the Final Four in girls basketball.

WHO IS CHEERING?

Poms and cheer walked down the road to state.

BECAUSE THIS IS...

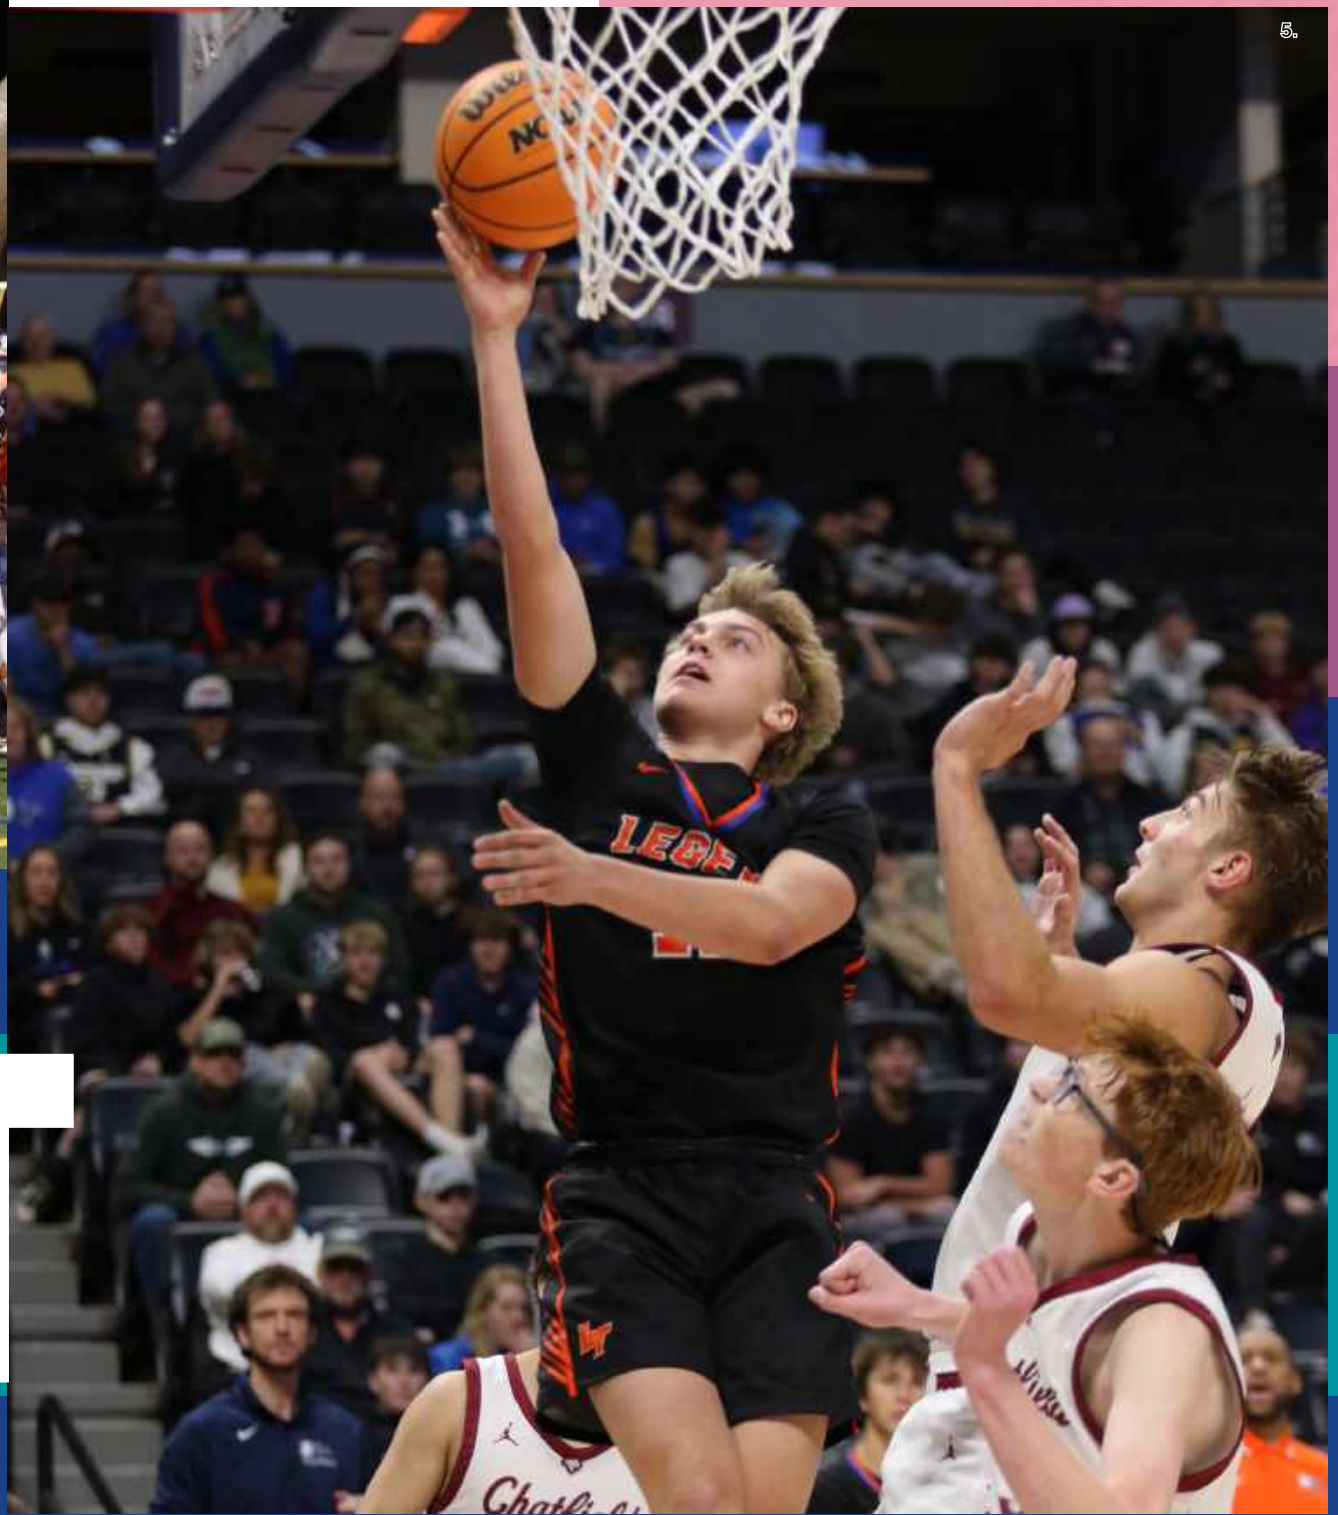

WHY WE DO IT

1. SHOW YOUR SPIRIT Performing, Kaitlyn Butterfield, 10, varsity poms dancer, takes the floor during halftime show at the boys basketball game at Ball Arena. Photo by Addie Solomon

2. GETTING HYPE After winning a big rally against rival Chaparral, Riley Hake, 9, celebrates with the varsity volleyball team. "At first it was scary being the youngest on the team, but we all had such a good bond and energy," Hake said. Photo by Kendelle Hansen

4. MAKING A STATEMENT Running out on the field during the Brighton game on Nov. 4, Nate Sandy, 12, carries out the Titan flag. "It is really important to get hype before the games," Sandy said. Photo by Addie Solomon

5. GUARD UP During a game against Chatfield, on Dec. 18 at Ball Arena, Carson Flowers, 11, jumps to shoot the ball. "We all play really well together as a team, and have good culture," Flowers said. Photo by Addie Solomon

3.

YOU STILL HAVE QUESTIONS?
YEAH, WE DO TOO.

We're short on minutes?
YEAH, NOW LUNCH IS SHORTER, AND SCHOOL IS LONGER.
We have a new schedule...again.

HOW'D GIRLS' BASKETBALL DO?
They made it to the Final Four for the first time in school history.

WE WERE ON 9NEWS?
Varsity football was the game of the week.

Derrick White's record was broken.
By who? SETH WHITEHEAD.

WHAT HAPPENED WITH SADIE'S?
IT WAS POSTPONED. TWICE.

HASN'T IT BEEN A LONG YEAR?
We think so and people are STILL ASKING...
