

EAGLE of Broomfield Emma Mascarenas

A passion stemming from her early childhood, Emma Mascarenas ('25) knew from a young age she loved to sing. Influenced by her parents, Mascarenas grew up in a musically fueled environment. She began to get serious in middle school, but especially when she joined choir and School of Rock. Most of her experience she credits to School of Rock because she was able to join the house band that went on tour, allowing for her music to get out to the public. Moreover, she got more opportunities to perform at different venues. "I would love to get a degree in music and possibly teach music in high school later in life," Mascarenas said. She hopes to continue her music career at a professional level, but as of right now she's simply having fun.

SPOOK-TACULAR Costumes

Happy Halloween! Between sugar rushes and costume contests, the Eagles really went all out for it this spooky season. Halloween falling on a Tuesday didn't stop any of them from dressing up and showing their hallow-spirit. Here's a few of Broomfield's bests.

QUICK 4

Trick-or-Treat... The boo's and the ghouls' were out this hallo-weekend, here's what they did...

Lauren Hernandez ('26)

"For Hallo-weekend, I dressed up as Woody. I had a very eventful weekend with my friends."

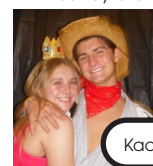

Sienna Alvarado ('25)

"In true flapper girls fashion, my friends and I watched scary movies and ate a bunch of candy on Hallo-weekend."

Akio Takeshita ('27)

"I rode my scooter to my friend's house and we Trick-or-Treated all night. My favorite candy is left Twix."

Kaden Stecklein ('24)

"On Hallo-weekend, I went to a costume party with all my friends and we all had a great time, even though I had a snake in my boot."

Addison Petrone

"I do pottery and I really like it because it's a subjective art form and you can really go in any direction. I really like the sculpting aspect of it and you can really create anything out of clay."

Addison Petrone ('25)

Oui Oui

French Fighting week was a way for students to learn a little about French culture. There were a few activities throughout the week. Some of the activities included finding the French flags around the school, selling crepes in the morning, baguette fencing, and trivia.

Mrs. Kelly

Josephine Halbert

Mrs. Seifried

Noah Biller (24), Michelle Grayson

"I chose Ms. Grayson because she is super kind and funny, and a great influence on us"

OUR JERSEY

Your Impact

David Ely (24), Steve Marchi

Gray Cobb (24), Kay Davidson

James Rounders (24), Nathan Getroche

Teachers rarely get appreciated as much as they should, but when coach Robert O'Brien stepped in to lead the reigning state champion Eagles, he was determined to change that. So, he brought back the tradition of "Our Jersey, Your Impact." "Our teachers do so much for us in terms of supporting our athletes, so we just wanted to do something to show our support and care for our teachers," said O'Brien. After weeks of planning, the seniors were able to pull off the surprise with a little help from Mrs. Ramsey by calling a morning meeting. "It was a total surprise," said Mrs. Davidson, who had received

Gray Cobb's Jersey number. "I did not know what we were meeting for, and when I found out that it was Gray whose jersey and number I was getting, I was thrilled and honored that he would choose me as a person who has made an impact on his high school career," said Davidson. The event was also meaningful for the student athletes. "It was super cool being able to recognize Mr. Marchi for the impact he has made on me," said David Ely. "He builds really good connections with his students outside of the classroom and cares about what's going on in our lives," Ely added.