

Ready for a BREAK

Spring Break marks the end of third quarter and the beginning of the final part of school. Some students have plans for break while others have lasting memories from past spring breaks.

Ashley Hawes did not travel this year, but she remembers when she was ten and visited Mexico.

Her favorite memory was "probably the food."

Harry Evenson traveled to another country. He said, "I went to Canada to snowboard."

Over spring break, Lucas Alverio said, "I went hiking."

He said that he was excited to have a break from school. No matter what you did over spring break, or where you went, it is a time to remember.

BEHIND the Scenes

With every new play comes a new experience. Whether you are behind the scenes or on the stage, everyone plays an important part. Genevieve Logan thought everyone did a good job on the play 30 Reasons Not To Be in a Play. "It was pretty good, we all tried our best, even though some of us forgot our lines," she explained. Alyssa Beaudoin shares the same feelings. She said, "I think it went pretty well, everyone was kinda quiet, but I think it went pretty well." Alyssa also took on a big role. "I played five parts actually, the mom, I played Julie, I played Becca, and I played two numbers," she said. Overall the cast members said the play was a fun experience, that everyone helped with.

SUNSHINE VS. SNOW

With spring around the corner, the weather can be mixed, it can go from sunshine one day to snow another day. Seely McCampbell prefers sunny weather because "you can play soccer." Melda Mujezin also enjoys the sunny weather. She said, "I can do more outside." Melda likes to go on walks when the sun is shining. On the other hand, Grady Lester enjoys the snowy weather, and likes to go sledding. His favorite part about sledding is "the cold." There is perks with each type of weather, but it depends on opinion, and different hobbies.

GRAMMAR Games

For most students, English is mainly reading and writing, but Ms. Wildman's 7th grade class gets to have some fun with learning grammar. Eloise Knudsen enjoys grammar games. "It's better than sitting there in silence," she said. On the other hand, Carter Cook doesn't enjoy grammar games. "I don't know, you don't do anything," he said. Naomi Seiffertt feels that grammar games

"just take to long and I feel like there could be other more important things we're learning about." Even though Carter and Naomi don't love grammar games, Mazy Purnell does. She explained, "I love reading and writing and English is my favorite subject."
