

i am not a
valentines person.

"I don't think there should just be a special day to get flowers, get a card, or do something nice for someone when you could do it any time of the year."

MR. WILLIAMSON

i don't like
reality tv.

"I have always leaned toward fiction. I love to read it, write it, and watch it. I think I like fiction because I get enough of reality every day."

cheetos are bad.

"They just taste bad, except when they're frozen. We went skiing once, and we put Cheetos in the back of the car, and we forgot about them. After skiing we were hungry, so my parents got out the Cheetos. They were frozen, and they were delicious."

i think Taylor Swift is overrated.

"I don't like how people think she is so awesome even though she is just a normal person who sings, and there are a bunch of other people who can sing way better than her. I also think she should not have won the Person of the Year Award."

ANNABELLE ROYSTER (8)

like
corn.

i hate all
sauces.

"They don't taste good, and I also don't like butter, gravy or any condiments. I think the worst sauce is mustard, and if I had to choose one to eat it would be ketchup. My dad does not like BBQ sauce, but that's it."

ISAAC JACOBSON (6)

i like pineapple
on pizza.

"I like that pineapple adds a sweet taste to the salty pizza. In my family, I'm the only one who likes it, so we always fight on what to order, but in the end, I get it about once a month."
