

TRIM LINE

Moments Assembled

The Homecoming assembly is a big part of Homecoming Week, being the competition between grades. The competitive games, the teamwork, and the class fun shows school spirit. The games played this year consisted of dodgeball, musical chairs, tug of war, and a few relay races. The competition gets tough. This year's winners were the Seniors. Zumba got every one up and moving.

Customer is allowed to have objects outside of the margin.

Carla Fraser

Barbie

Vs.

Frat

Neveah & Elanna

Country

Vs.

Country Club

TRIM LINE

All Dressed Up

Dress up days or "Spirit Weeks" are always fun for the students, it being a way for them to get out of their everyday clothes and into something different and fun with a little bit of competition.

Smashing Moments

The Delta High School "Car Smash" was a fundraiser to help raise money for the Homecoming shirts. Delta High School does many fundraisers for certain things whether that's before the school or stuff that happens in Delta. The car smash was run by STUCO. Logan Sheets, Jackson Kincaid, and Byron Cabrera all participated in the car smash. "It helped me get my anger out, and calm down," Sheets said. "I broke the sledge hammer right in half."

Logan Sheets

Kincaid JD

Light it Up With Us

Delta High School's bonfire has been a tradition for years. It's always a memorable moment for Delta High School and its students. This year the bonfire was postponed due to a fire down Main Street, but was quickly rescheduled so the students could enjoy the

TRIM LINE

Homecoming With US

Ava Martinez and Landon Hamm represented Sophomores at the Homecoming parade. "It was cool riding around in the cars, but I was nervous," said Martinez.

Homecoming royalty is a specialty thing for the people chosen. A form is sent out to the students and they vote on the person that they believe should be apart of Homecoming royalty. The winners of the vote get to be in the Homecoming parade, and are driven around in special vehicles.

Jordan Reed and Aiden Cohick represented the Freshmen class. "My favorite part was being able to get it with my brother and stand out in the field with a few of my good friends," said Reed.

Brayden Ahlberg and Xavier Martinez represented the Senior Homecoming Royalty. "It was an unforgettable experience getting ready with my closest friends to freeze in our dresses at the Homecoming game," said Ahlberg.

Ty Reed and Taylor Somers represented the Juniors at the Homecoming Royalty Parade. Ripp Lockhart had been his competition against Reed. "Kind of expected it because I knew it was between me and Ripp," said Reed.

Dance The Night Away

Nathan Brewer and Morgan Farmer win the title of Senior Homecoming King and Queen of '23. "It definitely enhanced my senior year because it's a good way to end off my last Homecoming being able to be recognized by my family and having my friends also on royalty," said Brewer.

The Homecoming dance is the basis around Homecoming week. It's a place for fun and laughter for everyone. The students get to get into nice or formal wear and dance the night away with all of their friends. The dance allows everyone to get dancing and having fun leaving them with a fun and memorable night for everyone to look back on.

Photos credits: Ben Nortnik

Neveah, Dellah, and Victoria

Gwen and Mason

Andrie and Kaylie

Baylee and Talan

Derek and Mia

David and Saw

Sophia and Jayden

Anthony, DeRah, and Cameron

Customer is allowed to have objects outside of the margin.

TRIM LINE

TRIM LINE