

(1) Senior Ja'Sean Cooper radiates nothing but happiness and gratitude after being crowned Homecoming king while his mom walks him to the crowd. "This is the biggest win of my life so far; I enjoyed every second of the experience. It was honestly a surprise to me for them to shout my name and give me the crown because I didn't think people would vote for me." (2) Sophomores Dredin Mansapit, Ky'ler Dean Blas, Joe Garcia Jr, Izabella Quijas, and Abigail Atkinson pose with smiles in stunning outfits. "I really liked going to Homecoming because I got to hang out with my friends all night and make some fun memories with them. We also took some fire photos too," sophomore Ky'ler Dean Blas said. (3) Junior Andrea Martinez, Danny Truong, Adaleeyah Latimer, and senior Max Hernandez put a twist on their photos and went for fun poses at Cottonwood Creek Park before dancing the night away. "Homecoming was such a different vibe than the other years because they played good music and it was overall a better environment. I also went to Wu Hoo's for dinner, which was delicious," said Danny Truong. (4) Senior Brianna Rhoads, senior Brooklyn Welch, junior Emma Nightingale, and senior Ysela Greene take some eccentric photos as a group. "This Homecoming I got to move around and talk to a lot more people, which made it a lot more engaging. Plus, I got to get ready with all my friends and do all their makeup which I enjoyed," said Brianna Rhoads.

"My final Homecoming as a senior was really sentimental because I knew it was my last, but that meant I got to make the most of it with my friends." said senior Mariah Serrano-Walton.

"My Homecoming as a junior was very interesting and exciting because my friends and I went out to dinner, and we also all got ready together," said junior Titus Butler.

"My second high school Homecoming was really fun. It was more fun than my first year, mainly because there was a photo booth that my friends and I used it a lot," said sophomore Kalyn Dick.

"My very first Homecoming as a freshman was a little challenging, but also very fun. It's so much different from middle school, but I had a good time when I let loose and just danced with my friends," said freshman Rylan Gufarotti.
