

all in harmony
AHS band is performing the songs they have learned and practiced throughout semester on their instruments. They are performing at OMS with their teacher Mrs. Knutson as their director.

In some pictures the AHS band is performing with other adults. The band students are giving their all in performing their music. Student Colton Phillips is happy to be performing the music he has learned to the audience at OMS.

music to the ears

pitch perfect
AHS choir class performing at Oms. The choir teacher Mrs. Waller is the director of the choir concert. Her students have practiced songs all year to preform for their concerts. This picture is from their choir performance at OMS during Christmas time.